ORIGINAL COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

Plaintiff Intellectual Capital Consulting, Ltd. ("ICC") sues Defendants Hyundai Motor Company, Hyundai Motor America, Hyundai Motor Manufacturing Alabama,

LLC, General Motors Corporation, General Motors LLC, OnStar, LLC, Audi AG, Audi of America LLC, Audi of America, Inc., Volkswagen AG, Volkswagen Group of America, Inc., BMW of North America, LLC, Bayerische Motoren Werke AG, Dr. Ing. h.c. F. Porsche AG, Porsche Cars North America, Inc., DEI Holdings, Inc., Directed Electronics, Inc., Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd., Samsung Electronics America, Inc., Samsung Telecommunications America LLC, LG Corporation, LG Electronics U.S.A. Inc., LG Electronics MobileComm U.S.A., Inc., Sony Corporation, Sony Electronics, Inc., Sony Corporation of America, Lenovo Limited Group, Lenovo Holding Company, Inc., Lenovo (United States), Inc., Motorola Mobility, Inc., Apple, Inc., Station Digital Media, Inc., and Rego Apps, LLC, (collectively, "Defendants"), on information and belief, respectfully shows and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff ICC owns the invention described and claimed in United States Patent No. 7,068,151 entitled "Vehicle Security System" (the "'151 Patent"). Defendants, without Plaintiff's permission, (a) have used and continued to use Plaintiff's patented technology in connection with products that they make, use, sell, and offer to sell which distribute or use smartwatch vehicular systems, components and software thereof, and (b) have contributed to or induced, and continue to contribute to or induce, others to infringe the '151 Patent. Plaintiff ICC seeks damages for patent infringements and an injunction preventing Defendants from making, using, selling, or offering to sell, and from contributing to and inducing others to make, use, sell, or offer to sell, Plaintiff's patented technology without permission.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

2. This is an action for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. §§ 271 and 281, et seq. The Court has original jurisdiction over this patent infringement action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), and 1367.
3. Venue is proper in this Court because the Defendants are responsible for acts of infringement occurring in the Eastern District of Texas as alleged in this Complaint, and have delivered or caused to be delivered its infringing products in the Eastern District of Texas.
4. Additionally, this venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c), and 1400(b). On information and belief, each Defendant is deemed to reside in this judicial district, has committed acts of infringement in this judicial district, has purposely transacted business in this judicial district, and/or has regular and established places of business in this judicial district.
5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants. Defendants have conducted and continue to conduct business within the State of Texas. Defendants, directly or through subsidiaries or intermediaries (including distributors, retailers, and others), ships, distributes, offers for sale, sells, and advertises (including the provision of an interactive web page) its products and/or services in the United States, the State of Texas, and the Eastern District of Texas. Defendants, directly and through subsidiaries or intermediaries (including distributors, retailers, and others), have purposefully and voluntarily placed one or more of its infringing products and/or services, as described below, into the stream of commerce with the expectation that they will be purchased and used by consumers in the Eastern District of Texas. These infringing products and/or services have been and continue to be purchased and used by consumers in the Eastern District of Texas. Defendants have committed acts of patent infringement within the State of Texas and, more particularly, within the Eastern District of Texas.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

PATENT INFRINGEMENT ('151 PATENT)

69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations in paragraphs 1 - 68 above.

70. On or about June 27, 2006, the '151 Patent, disclosing and claiming an "Vehicle Security System," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

71. ICC is the assignee and exclusive licensee of the '151 Patent, entitled "Vehicle Security System" with ownership of all substantial rights in the '151 Patent, including the right to exclude others and to enforce, sue, and recover damages for past and future infringements. As part of his fiduciary duties with ICC, named inventor Samuel K. Giles assigned all rights, title, and interest in the '151 Patent to ICC. Additionally, named inventor Christopher E. Smith exclusively licensed all substantial rights in the '151 Patent to ICC, including the right to exclude others and to enforce, sue, and recover damages for past and future infringements. A true and correct copy of the '151 Patent is attached as See Exhibit A. The '151 Patent is valid, enforceable, and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

72. Defendants have infringed, contributed to the infringement, and induced others to infringe the '151 Patent and, unless enjoined, will continue to infringe the '151 Patent by manufacturing, using, selling, offering for sale, or by using the apparatus and method(s) claimed in the '151 Patent or by contributing to or inducing others to make, use, sell, or offer to sell, the claimed invention or use the claimed apparatus and method(s) without a license or permission from Plaintiff.

73. Plaintiff has been damaged by Defendants' infringement of the '151 Patent and will suffer additional irreparable damage and impairment of the value of its patent rights unless Defendants are enjoined from continuing to infringe the '151 Patent.

JOINDER OF PARTIES

74. Plaintiff ICC incorporates paragraphs 1 through 73 herein by reference.

75. On information and belief, Defendants have each manufactured, purchased or otherwise acquired smartwatch vehicular systems for sale, resale, and/or distribution to their customers (and other end users) that are the subject to the First Claim for Relief (or some subset thereof). Thus, for the First Claim for Relief, the right to relief against Defendants is asserted jointly and severally.

76. The alleged infringements set forth in the First Claim for Relief arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences relating to the testing, making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing of smartwatch vehicular systems, components and software thereof made in the subject of the First Claim for Relief.

77. Questions of fact common to all Defendants will arise in this action including, for example, infringement by, or through use of, smartwatch vehicular systems, components, and software thereof. Thus, joinder of the Defendants is proper in this litigation pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 299(a).

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

78. Plaintiff ICC hereby requests a trial by jury pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

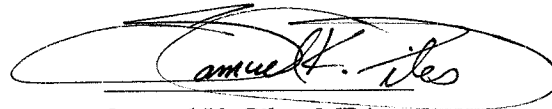

WHEREFORE PLAINTIFF PRAYS for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. A judgment that Defendants have infringed one or more of the '151 Patent's claims, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by Defendants and/or by others whose infringements have been induced by Defendants and/or by others to whose infringements Defendants have contributed;
- B. An order and judgment preliminarily and permanently enjoining Defendants, their officers, directors, employees, agents, and all persons in active concert with them, from infringing, and contributing to or inducing others to infringe, the '151 Patent;
- C. An accounting of each Defendant's profits pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117;

- D. A judgment awarding ICC all damages adequate to compensate for Defendants' infringement of ICC's asserted patent, and in no event less than a reasonable royalty for Defendants' acts of infringement, including all pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate permitted by law;
- E. A judgment awarding ICC all damages, including treble damages, based on any infringement found to be willful, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, together with prejudgment interest;
- F. Cost of suit and reasonable attorneys' fees;
- G. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.
